Shri A.V. Shridhar Rao, learned counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Akhil Agrawal, P.L. for the State.

Heard.

The petitioner was appointed as Siksha Karmi Grade III on 23.3.2001 as probationer and thereafter his probation period starts under Rule 7 of Panchayat Siksha Karmis (Recruitment And Conditions of Service) Rules, 1997 (herein-after referred to as "Rules, 1997"). Initially, the petitioner was appointed as Shiksha Karmi, Grade III on probation for three years extendable up to five years for a particular school so that he serves for full probation period.

Petitioner has completed three years of probation and it appears that his probation period has been extended further. Five years period will be completed on 22.3.2006. The petitioner has filed this petition challenging that Rule 7 of Rules, 1997 has not been complied with because he has not been confirmed after completion of three years probation period.

Learned counsel contends that the employer should inform the probationer that his service has been extended for a further period of two years. Since the petitioner has failed to give notice before extending the period of probation without passing confirmation order, the extended period of probation is bad in law and contrary to Rules.

On perusal of the papers, I am of the view that contention of the petitioner is not sustainable in law. Rule 7 of Rules, 1997 clearly provides that the probation period of three years is extendable up to

In view of the foregoing, the petition is dismissed. No order as to costs. Sd/- Satish K. Agnihotri Judge
